

GREECE

Greece is an awe-inspiring place. Regarded as the cradle of western civilization and the birthplace of democracy, the country enjoys a long, colorful history and a rich cultural heritage. Here, you can walk through olive groves, marvel at ancient sites, visit sparsely inhabited islands, and trace the origins of the Olympic Games, western philosophy, and both comedy and tragedy—all while experiencing the beauty and warmth of the southernmost part of Europe.

City University of Seattle in Athens is located in the historical part of the Greek capital, just minutes from the Parliament, the Acropolis, Plaka, the Historical Museum (Palaia Vouli), the National Library, and Syntagma Metro station. CityU of Seattle in Athens offers bachelor's, master's, and certificate degree programs in a variety of academic fields ranging from business and management to technology and psychology.

Academic Focus

CityU of Seattle in Athens is an ideal location for undergraduate and graduate students to spend a quarter or an academic year abroad. Available programs include:

- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
- Bachelor of Science in Computer Systems
- Bachelor of Arts in Applied Psychology

- Master of Business Administration
- Master of Science in Project Management

The university encourages students to choose at least two courses on Greek culture and life.

Tuition

Tuition rates vary by the type and length of the program being studied. For more information on costs, call or email. See contact information below.

Living Arrangements

CityU of Seattle in Athens provides all international students with fully furnished apartments in the center of Athens (HILTON area). The apartments are located within walking distance of classes.

Eligibility Requirements

Minimum age is 18.

Program Length

Academic year consists of four 10-week quarters.

Contact

City University of Seattle in Athens
Harris Geronikolas, Director of Study Abroad Programs
1, Karitsi st. and Kolokotroni st.
Syntagma, Athens, 10561
Telephone: +30.210.32.43.221
Fax: +30.210.32.25.253
E-mail: info@cityu.gr
Web: www.CityU.gr

